

There are no Polar Bears in Antarctica.

Polar bears have never met penguins except in TV commercials or in a zoo.

Polar bears live in the Arctic (the North Pole) while the penguins live in Antarctica (the South Pole).

Animals in both poles are in danger
because their homes are slowly disappearing due to melting ice sheets.

To find out how you can help visit www.crisis.ku.edu

