Understanding the relationship between sea level rise and melting ice sheets is an issue of global importance. Join the only Science & Technology Center dedicated to developing techniques for determining the contribution of ice sheets to sea level rise.

The Center of Remote Sensing of Ice Sheets

www.cressis.ku.edu