our neighbors are penguins

we own a robot? we do.

we get to play with sensors and radar we live on ice

we contribute toward the research on global warming we use many tools, including the Meridian, which is a plane that can fly without a pilot we take satellite measurements we measure humongous ice sheets center for the remote sensing of ice sheets connecting the world one ice sheet at a time